2010 & 2009 GRAMMY-nominated pianist and composer Geoffrey Keezer was born in Eau Claire, Wisconsin into a musical family, and began studying piano at the age of three. In 1989, at the age of 18, after completing his first year at the Berklee College of Music, Geoffrey joined Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers. Since then, Geoffrey has worked with virtually all of the living legends of jazz and has appeared on countless recordings both as a leader and as an accompanist. Don't miss this rare opportunity to see him here in concert.
